Honorable Joel T. Broyhill
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Broyhill:

Thank you for your letter of 20 November 1956 expressing your interest in Mr. [   ]

[   ] requested a review of the employment possibilities for him in a telephone conversation with a member of my staff on 21 November 1956 and was interviewed by a representative of the Office of Personnel on 23 November 1956. Our review has not developed any suitable opening for [   ], and it is doubtful that we will be in a position to offer him employment in the foreseeable future. A copy of our letter to him to this effect is enclosed.

Your interest in our organization is appreciated, and I am sorry that the outlook here for [   ] is not more promising.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Allen W. Dulles

We have concluded our review of current possibilities for your employment by this Agency. As you have been informally advised, we have been unable to locate a suitable position for which you may be considered.

We appreciate your continued interest in our organization and regret that we are unable to offer you employment. The present outlook concerning future possibilities for you is not promising and we feel that you should not be encouraged to anticipate a more favorable situation in the future.

We will, of course, be glad to review the situation for you at any time you request such consideration.

Very truly yours,

Harrison G. Reynolds
Director of Personnel
